Would you like to join our email discussion group, through Google Groups (open to all World Federalists)?

- Add my email address to the group

During federal election campaigns, WFMC surveys the federal political parties about their positions on key foreign policy and global governance issues of interest to World Federalists, such as Canada's support for peacekeeping, the Responsibility to Protect, and United Nations reform.

(The questions and responses from the 2015 and 2011 elections are at wfmcanada.org/elections/)

What issues or topics would you like WFMC to ask of the federal political parties ahead of the October 2019 federal election?
